In order to recoup any payment made to Philmont, the applicant must find another Venturer/Scout/advisor to take his place and pay the fees to the applicant. "Fill-in" Venturers/Scouts/advisors must be approved by the Contingent Coordinator beforehand, and meet the same requirements as the original applicant in order to take the place of the applicant. Refunds on contingency fee payments, if possible, will be made following the expedition. The reason for this being that payments are made for reservations, tickets, etc., beginning in January 2008. Anyone dropping out after January 2008 has been included in those reservations, tickets, etc. Amount of refund will be based on dollars available after the trip.
